

DO YOU WANT TO TAKE OUR MOTEK BUSINESS TO THE NEXT LEVEL?

Our game-changing and innovative technologies are ready to be spread out globally! By building up our brand-new Business Unit you will shape our business and have a strong impact on defining the global research world!

If you are a self-starter, who inspires others with your visionary and hands-on leadership mentality, then we would be excited to receive your application to be our:

Global Business Unit Manager

Are you inspired by...

- taking responsibility for developing and leading THE business unit of THE global leader in advanced research technologies
- developing future business models and tailored research solutions and services
- connecting with our customers and stakeholders worldwide to understand their needs
- working closely together with our DIH Group Senior Management and global group functions as member of the Motek Executive Management Team

We match with candidates who...

- are entrepreneurial, visionary and can turn ideas into reality
- have strong negotiation and communication skills

- can think strategically and creatively
- are able to see the big picture and have a result-oriented can-do attitude
- are natural, inspiring leaders
- thrive in changing and fast paced environments
- have a quick understanding of and adaptation to new dynamic environments

You are experienced in...

- leading cross functional teams
- building up, expanding and or optimizing businesses strategically as well as hands on
- working with cross-border teams and multiple internal and external stakeholders
- strategic market analysis, identification of new business opportunities and market access strategies

... and you have

- done all this for more than 5 years
- a Master Degree in Economics, Life Sciences or another relevant discipline

Leading. Innovative. Reliable. Human. Integrity. Passionate.

That is what Motek stands for. What do you stand for?

www.motekforcelink.com

The position will be based at Motek in our Amsterdam office.

Please send us your compelling motivation letter that points out why you match with us, together with your CV and photo to our HR team at info@motekforcelink.com Ms Helene Teuscher, (+41 43 444 22 00) is glad to answer your questions.

We only accept direct applications.